“ She was my momma. She chose to take on a young child that wasn't hers but raised me like her own. My heart is heavy and it's still unbelievable to me. Thanks to her I know the value of hard work and keeping promises. She made sure I was raised in church and raised to have the same respect for the janitor as I would for the CEO. She had a heart of gold. Her smile and laugh was contagious. Her husband Billy made sure to teach her the ways of never meeting a stranger. I'm sure almost or most of Ripley know her or know of her either by her sweetness and decication to her husband and the life they built together or she was know as Mr. Billy's wife and that's something she truly cherished. She loved her family and friends. I love you to the moon and back momma.
