“ I found his TikTok when he had 30 followers. I am clevelandcavaliers10, but usually known as something like aheartforanimals, which I will be going back to soon. He was a great guy, we talked and chatted, and his personality was one of the best I've ever seen. I left TikTok for a few months and came back to find him gone, I didn't think it was real at first, but now I see it is and I am keeping the Rayburn family in my thoughts. Stay strong, We're here for you guys. We love you, Alex!

“ I found him on TikTok about 2 yrs ago, when he had less than 100 followers. I talked to him and he seemed so kind and he devoted to his music and Christianity. I had gotten off of TikTok for a while only to come back to find he had passed away. You will be missed Alex

“ Alex will surely be missed... He had the voice of an Angel, the heart of a Saint, he always went out of his way to help those who needed help, and to speak to and include everyone around him. He loved his family with all his heart ~ a wonderful brother to his sisters, Mikayla & Elissa; and an incredible loving role model for his baby brother, Jayden. His absence will definitely be felt in this world ~ he was a shining light that God just couldn't wait for any longer. Much love and constant prayers to the Rayburn family ~ I am so very sorry for you loss.

“ Alex was a tremendous blessing and the BMC Drama Team IMPACT was so grateful that he stepped in last year right before a performance in a leading role. He did an excellent job.

“ Alex was the kindest person I have ever met. When I first moved to Ripley, him and Emily were the first people I met. They welcomed me and made me feel accepted. Alex asked me to prom and he was officially my first prom date! I remember everyday in English he would say, “you still going to prom with me right”! For two months straight he asked everyday and it made me smile so big! He was an amazing person with a beautiful voice! I love you Alex and I hope your singing with the angels!
