“ Aunt Faye, Mamaw To my babies thank you so much for loving not only me for the last 13 years but loving my family and watching and seeing my kids born and grow. Thank you for taking me to the casino for my very first time even if we lost atleast we enjoyed ourselves. Lastnight was the hardest night of my life finding you but I knew you were going to the best place ever, no more pain, no more suffering with your husband and kids and the good Lord. Heaven sure did gain the beautifully angel ever and I'm sure going to miss you every single day. I'll forever remember you and always always tell my babies about you. I promise to take care of my mom and dad (Richard and Teresa) they loved you more than anything and are so lost without you. Matthew loves you too and my brother Dustin. It sure isn't the same around here and never will be! Tell Santa I love him and I'll forever miss you both. I'll see you again one day, I love you so much Aunt Faye please watch over my family and my babies.
