“ So enjoyed knowing Allen. Always smiling when he talked and such a deep and good hearted person. He had more resilience and positivity in the face of so many things that most of us would not have handled anywhere close to half as well. What a positive footprint he made.
Mavis, none of us could have a sweeter or better friend than you. Know how much you are loved and know how much we respected and loved Allen.

Mavis, so sorry about your son. His picture reminds me of my cousin, Charles Martindale and my son Britt Lancaster Newby. I am hoping they are meeting each other in Heaven although they did not know each other on earth. My prayers are with you this coming year. It took me a while.

“ Heartfelt condolences to Allen’s mother , father , and loved ones. I first met Allen when I was 12 and he was 15. We lived in the same neighborhood and both attended Harding Academy. We would meet and play basketball at the East Memphis Catholic Clubs outdoor goal. I thought he was great. A really funny and cool guy, and strong as a bull.

Over the years I lost track of Allen only to find him on Facebook about 8 years ago.

We immediately hit it off like no time had passed and began a daily communication that covered the gamut of all topics from ancient philosophy to modern politics.

Allen’s humor and wit were legendary and he was the only person in recent memory who could make me cry from laughter.

But I believe what was so wonderful about Allen , and what was able to inspire the love of so many people , was his tender heart and his warriors spirit.

There was never a more tender hearted, loving soul than Allen Rader. He loved and cared for innumerable stray and abused dogs over the years.

Allen was the kind of friend whose loyalty was unquestionable. If there was ever a friend you could turn to, even when the whole world was against you, and you knew he would stay by your side , it was Allen.

Allen also had great physical strength and courage. Allen would never walk away from a confrontation when he was in the right, or in defense of a friend , or someone who just needed his help.

Allen was chivalrous and brave and charitable.

Recently I took a 93 year old lady I know out for dinner and we went to Allen's restaurant and Allen gave us everything for free and was full of kind words and attention for this lady. Allen could tell she needed a friend and he made her feel like a Queen.

Allen struggled with ups and downs like we all do.

I’ve often believed his sensitive nature made life harder for him than many people. But he never gave up. He always pushed forward.

And he always was working on himself.

In another age or time , Allen would have been greatly admired and appreciated for his many noble qualities. But such is not the age in which we currently live.

Allen married Lienda recently and loved her very much. Allen loved her children.

I often took my 9 year old son Robert with me to visit with Allen and Allen would just become a big kid and play with him and talk to him like he was an adult.

My son was crazy about Allen Rader.

To be so loving to animals , and to inspire the love of children, I don't know what more in the ways of character you could ask of a man.

Despite his setbacks and despite whatever life threw at him , he never ever gave up , and he was a true , loyal , and honorable friend.

I don't know what more I could say on behalf of man , or what other praise I could give that would be higher than that which I would give to Allen Rader.

He will always be in my heart , the heart of my son , and in the hearts of so many others who were lucky enough to have crossed paths with this unique and noble soul.

I will always love you Allen. And we will meet again.

*Your friend ,
Peter*

Peter I appreciate the kind words about Allen. I am Allen's Dad and he would always call usually with a joke. Recently he started playing golf. He called one day all excited!! "Dad He said", I just got in from playing Golf and I shot a 68. I said WOW, how did you manage to do that cause I have played for years and never had a great score like that. "he said Dad I really did shoot a 68. And then He said, I'm going back out now to play the back nine and hoping to shoot as well as the front nine!!! Allen was always the joker. There are so many things and funnies that Allen did. Our entire families loved him greatly and He will be greatly missed. Steve Rader

“ Allen was my nephew. A special memory I have was when he was a little guy 4 or 5 maybe, and I was driving my blue duster. He was in the front seat, there was no seat belts then, (74 /75) but he and I would go to the store and buy popsicles and candy. I remember it very well. He and I had fun, smiling, laughing and with the radio on too. I believe in heaven, he and other angels are watching over us.

“ My heart is with Mavis, Lienda, friends, and all of our family. Allen was a beautiful man inside and out. His heart, intelligence, humor, and strength has influenced us all. My little cousin grew up to be my big cousin, and I've cherished every minute. I miss you so much, and know you'll always still be there, watching over us all from Heaven. The red candle is for Spirit that is eternal, and also for Roll Tide. ❤️
