“ My cousin, Elizabeth, from Blue Mountain sent me an email this morning about your mom. My first reaction was purely selfish. I thought how happy MY mom was to see YOUR mom finally arrive :) I think Mrs. Powell was the best friend my mom ever had. She was also a very good friend to me. She helped lay a foundation for me academically and spiritually. My family spent many wonderful times with Mr. and Mrs. Powell in their home. I LOVED going upstairs to the attic to play with the antique dolls. It is one of my most precious memories of childhood. I loved the smell of the ink from the old ditto machine. I also LOVED eating her wonderful rolls. But, I must say I was always afraid of those little dogs :) Your entire family has actually played quite a role in my life. I am very grateful to Christine for helping me in my junior/high school years and for the special times I had with Linda during seminary days. I grieve for your loss, but I KNOW FOR CERTAIN that your mom is now enjoying her precious Savior, face to face. Please know that my thoughts are with you during this time. (Rachel will move into the dorm at BMC on Aug. 16. I hope we will have some times this fall to visit with each other.)

“ We are in prayer for all of you, her family, who are suffering from the loss of Mrs. Powell. I remember how kind you girls were to me when I would visit Aunt Jessie after Melva was born. My mother and father have both gone on to be with the Lord and I know how hard it is to not have your parents here with you. But I think of how much better off they are than we are. I look forward to the day when we will see them all again, and I know you do too. May God comfort you now as you go through the next few days.

“ I am so happy that Aunt Alva has finally been able to share one of her hugs with her Savior. I will continue to miss her until I get one of those hugs again myself. God bless you all.
