“ I have been in touch with Audrey via Facebook for many months. She was such a zany, talented and loving individual. I got a painting of Snoopy from her the day I learned she was gone. I will treasure this painting for the remainder of my life. It will forever remind me of a sweet soul gone too soon. Freida Payne

I'll never forget the day I first met Audrey and King. We were living in Memphis at the Harding Graduate School Married student apartments. James had often mentioned his friend King McCarver and his wife Audrey. A group of their fellow Ministry students and their wives from Freed and Lipscomb were meeting up in the area. As Harding student, I had never met these friends. The day we arranged to meet up with James' preacher friends and their wives, I hit my forehead on a kitchen chair and had a huge goose egg over my eye. When we met up, Audrey teased James about my "goose egg". It was hilarious and for many years that was hilariously mentioned whenever we got together. Always a fun time of reminiscing. ❤️ Till we meet again ❤️

“ Audrey was my best friend in high school during those painful growing up years. She made my life more fun with all our adventures. My memories of her are full of laughter, and my more recent memories reflect her love for all those she ministered to with her writing and paintings. Such a gift to us all!! I will miss her until I see her again.
