“ To Tammy and Barry's family. I am so sorry for your loss. I got the chance to talk with Barry a couple of weeks ago and he really touched my heart and soul. He said no matter what the Good Lord had in store for him, he was good with God and Jesus and was ready to go Home if that was God's Will. He was very sincere about this. It touched me and I'll never forget it. I always liked Barry- from all those many years ago at Walnut High School. And it is awesome knowing that he is in Heaven now. You are in my thoughts and prayers, Tammy. And all of Barry's family as well. God Bless you and give you peace.

“ You are my brother and my friend. No matter what happened good or bad you were always there for me. I'm gonna miss you so much but I know you're in a better place with Callie. Give her a hug and know that I'll see you again one day. Until then I love you and wish you hadn't left my life so soon !

“ You lived a good life my "brother-in-love"! One full of love, laughter, excitement, dedication, commitment, hard work, and yes, even frustration and pain at times. No matter what this rocky road of life seemed to throw your way, you always had a comforting soul, warm heart, and friendly smile. In a very special way, you've touched so many lives here on earth - it's not surprising God called you to be amongst his elite group of angels. I look forward to the day when I once again hear your soft, gentle voice say, "hello Miss Stringer". Rest in peace my friend and don't worry about Tammy & Travis we'll shower them with more love and comfort than you could ever imagine. Love you!

P.S. Don't tell the other 3, but you've always been my favorite brother-in-law (hee hee).
