“ Hey BooBoo...It has been a disappointment to have to watch you leave us, but we know that you are in good hands with the Lord now. We will miss you dearly. Love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck. Tell Chris and Eric we love them too. Lisa if you need anything just give us a call. Love you.

“ When I was a small child Aunt Bea would play footsie with me under the dinner table. Which would make my day that much more fun. She had a knack for making you feel like you had all of her attention, love, and sometimes displeasure even if there was a multitude of relatives and friends around. She was a sharp tongued sassy lady and I loved her so much. I will miss seeing her and miss talking to her on the phone with her customary tone saying, "boy when are you gonna' come see me?"

“ Lisa, we are so sorry to hear about Bea. I just talked to her the other night regarding Chris and she seemed so broken hearted. I know how it is to lose a mother because no one can ever take the place of her. I will always remember when her, Mildred and my mom came down to my wedding. The three of them really had a great time. I still have the video of my wedding and the three of them cutting the fool. I will always cherish this video because all I have to do is plug it in and there they are the three Musketeers. God works in strange ways and besides Chris may have needed her because boys are always mamma's boys. We loved her very much and she will always be in our hearts so she will never be gone. I will say a special prayer tonight to tell God to be on the look out for one special Aunt, AUNT BEA.....
