“ I don't know if you remember me, but I used to live just down the street from your family. Billy Ross and I were school mates. I have two younger brother's,(Dion and Dale)

I now live outside of Ripley, but while there the other day for an appointment, I was told of this sad news of Billy Ross's passing.

I am so sorry. I know that words just can't be found at a time like this, but I did want to send you this to let you know that even though I've not personally seen any of you in over twenty years.....my heart still aches. We never forget those that made an impact in our life and your family for sure touched mine.

Provers 3: 5,6

Romans 8:28

May these scriptures comfort you in your time of sorrow....May we remember that we are but spirit's having a human experience and each of us is loved and supported upon this journey.

Billy Ross was no exception.....he came, he did, and now he is free to return "home".

Deep peace~

“ I am so sorry that Boone and I couldn't come to the funeral. I had to be in Tupelo for two doctor's appointments that day. I will always remember that he graduated with Emily, and she knew him and liked him. I know he was a sweet young man, and came from a wonderful family. I love them all.
