Billy co-owned and operated Hughes Brothers Tire and Diesel Service in Walnut, MS for nearly 50 years, and also served as the 1st District Supervisor in Tippah County for 12 years. Billy loved sports and could be found several nights a week in the bleachers at Chalybeate or Walnut watching his kids, grandkids, and their teammates play ball. A man of few words, he always had a smile on his face, a one-liner ready, and a piece of peppermint or butterscotch in his pocket to pass out. He enjoyed fishing and in his later years, riding in his golf cart to feed the catfish with Henlee and his fur-buddies, Lola and Gypsy. He appreciated a well-kept yard and loved to mow his grass and maintain the landscaping. He also loved SEC sports and watching the Paul Finebaum Show from his favorite spot on the couch.

In addition to his wife Kay, Mr. Hughes leaves behind two daughters, Lorie Gaillard (James) of Chalybeate, MS, and Kelly Patterson (Todd) of Slayden, MS; and one son, Billy Claude Hughes II of Chalybeate, MS; 9 grandchildren, Gage Strickland (Jenna) of Southside, AL, Lucas Gaillard of Dumas, MS, Ben
