So sorry to hear about Miss Billye. She was the sweetest lady to work for. She will be missed.

Jennifer and David, I cherish the past we shared with you and your parents on Kirby Ridge Cove. Your daily interaction with us and the fun of trips and overnights with you are among our happiest memories. Your grandmother was your mom's best friend, and therefore a close friend of ours. She adored you all and I am sure her guidance and support helped mold you into the finest of adults anywhere. I long to see you both again and will be dedicated to making that happen in some form when this horrid pandemic releases us from the restrictions that have isolated all of us. You are in my prayers, understanding the loss of the tight connection you had to your mom through your loving grandmother. Carey Moore

“ Billye was a dear friend of our family for more than 30 years. Her strong faith and generous spirit was an inspiration. I admired how she trusted in the Lord until the end of her days. She will be so missed but she has found her eternal glory. ”
