“ After I moved to luka, I lost touch with Bobby & finally learned of his passing. This has touched me deeply. As teenagers, we went to school & church together & I taught him to play the guitar. We spent MANY Sunday evenings playing our guitars & just hanging out. He was a cherished friend.

“ I remember this day like it was yesterday, you coming to the house to pick me up for a joy ride in your new car. The fun we had that day, big brother. I love you so. So proud I grabbed my camera to catch the moment. This is so, so hard Bobby. I will miss you forever. You have my broken heart. Give mama and dad my love. Fly high, fly high.

I will always miss my Uncle Bobby's deep-fried turkey wings he sold at the flea market and his bright smile that filled the room but I know he is at peace now with the lord. I will continue to pray for all the family in our hours ahead, We love you Bobby.

“ For someone who was shy, Bobby had a smile that would melt your heart. He loved life and he will be missed by everyone who knew him. When I think of Bobby, my first thought is his smile and then I think about his years at First Monday selling all those turkey legs. He told me those turkey legs paid for his house. I love you bud--- RIP.
