

Bonnie B. Caviness

October 22, 1928 - November 30, 2019

Bonnie B. Caviness, 91, passed away Saturday, November 30, 2019 at Tippah County Hospital in Ripley, Mississippi. He was born on October 22, 1928 to Luther and Sophia Isabelle Clemmer Caviness in Tippah County, Mississippi. He graduated from Ripley High School in 1948. Bonnie was a lifelong Presbyterian and a faithful member of New Prospect Presbyterian Church, where he served as a Deacon and an Elder, a Sunday School Teacher, and Lay Preacher for Presbetry of St. Andrew. He owned and operated small businesses and worked as a machinery technician for Blue Bell where he retired with thirty-four years of service. For twenty years he served as the City of Ripley Alderman-at-Large. Serving his community was a favorite passion. By special proclamation the Mayor's office named June 5, 2013 as Bonnie Caviness Day. His greatest pleasure in life was his precious family. He and Nellie Henson Caviness were married fifty-two years at the time of her death on June 2, 2007. They were blessed with five loving children and their extended families.

Services will be at 11:00 A.M. Tuesday, December 3, 2019 at Ripley Presbyterian Church with Rev. William Connolly , Rev. Jody Hill and Dr. Charles Holland officiating. Burial will follow in New Prospect Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Visitation will be Tuesday, December 3, 2019 from 7:00 A.M. until service time at the Ripley Presbyterian Church.

Bonnie is survived by three sons, Doyle Caviness (Karen) of New Albany;

“ To the Caviness Family, I am deeply saddened by the death of your father. He was my machanic for many years at Blue Bell but most of all he was my friend. I can see that smile and hear that soft voice. I know he and my dad are reuniting in heaven, what a glorious time they will have. I will miss running into him from time to time. He was a wonderful man and I'm glad he touched my life. Carolyn Cowan-Prather
