“ Charles and Cindy, so sorry to hear about Bro. Davis passing. He was a treasure. When I think of him this memory comes to mind. He was preaching one Sunday night and all of a sudden he heard a noise.... he stopped preaching in the middle of his sermon and said from the pulpit, "Cindy, you and Moochie get that dog out of here!" Cindy and I had slipped Sugar, a black puppy, into church. I have lots of memories of him and your mom and both of you. Thank you. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this time. God bless.
