“ My Name is Randy Bryant. I am the son of Tommy Bryant and grandson of Liz Grisham Bryant of Baldwin ME. My memories are of old. Playing as a child with Buddy and Harry at Uncle Al's house. Later in life visiting Buddy at his home or even at the Store talking about music and instruments. I always enjoyed the times I spent with my Cousin Buddy. He is missed and I wish I could have visited with him in the more recent past. If we lived closer together, I would have spent much more time with Buddy.

“ All my years of growing up in Ripley, I stayed every day with MaGrisham (Effie Jane Grisham) along with about four or five other children. I have a very vivid memory during our summer break from school, MaGrisham would have Buddy come to her house and play his guitar for all of us. That was such a highlight to all of us kids. Buddy was always so humble and kind and polite to all of us (even though we were just a bunch of kids at the babysitters). He burial is on April 6 - and that was MaGrisham's birthday. Thinking of his family and offering prayers for comfort. He was just a good man.

“ When thinking of Buddy, one thinks of "all in" family person, pleasant, easy going, nice, well mannered, and one of the most accomplished guitar players in the south. And one can't think of Buddy without thinking of Terrye and Jon. A very close all American family.

We were neighbors with the Grishams in the 80s, stayed in close touch and traveled many places together. I've yet to believe he is gone, but I do believe he was one of the most pleasant, nicest, talented, hard worker, and easiest going friend in my life. I wish the entire world would use Buddy as a pattern for living. Nothing not to like.

Jon and Terrye, please stand proud and strong, we know he's going to stand out with his music talent in Heaven.

RIP my friend, you will be missed.
