“ All of Charles' classmates in the Ripley High Class of 1956 whose phone numbers I had were shocked and saddened to hear of his passing. All of us grew up together and happily recall the wonderful reunion Charles and Sylvia hosted at their lovely home several years ago that brought us together again. Please accept our deepest sympathy and heartfelt thoughts from all of us.

Mary Grace McCarley expressed very eloquently the sentiments of our class of 1956 in our sadness to hear of the death of our beloved classmate, Charles, (also lovingly known as "stump") He will live in our memory as a true gentleman and a true friend. We have Sylvia and all his family in our thoughts and prayers though this Christmas season, may God be with them.
