

Cheryl Markwell

June 10, 1959 - December 18, 2021

The family of Cheryl (Cheri) Braddock Markwell of Collierville, TN formerly of Walnut, MS is saddened to announce her passing on December 18, 2021 at the age of 62.

Cheri was born in Corinth, MS June 10, 1959. She spent 42 years as a nurse helping and serving others. The last of those 6 years her passion became working in hospice care tending to the needs of patients and families in their most desperate time of need. Cheri got the job done, done right and always made her patients top priority.

Outside of her compassionate care as a nurse, Cheri loved spending time tending to her yard, flowers and garden. She found joy and comfort in watching the birds and her many rescue dogs over the years. Cheri took great pride in her role as CeCe, loving, talking about, and spoiling her grandkids. Many of her favorite memories included vacationing at the beach with family and friends.

Cheri was preceded in death by, her father Olin Braddock, Jr., her brother David Braddock, and her grandparents O.M. & Nettie Braddock, and Frank & Ann Lou May. She is survived by her mother; Rebecca (May) Braddock; her person Gina Hopper; her children; Brad Markwell (Jessica) Goose Creek, SC, W. Blake Markwell (Whitney) Cary, NC; Brother; Steven Braddock (April) of Corinth, MS; three grandchildren; Faithe Markwell, Barrett Markwell, Thea Markwell; two step-grandchildren; Kyri Cortte (Matt), TJ Johnson. Along with many other, cousins, nieces, nephews and loving friends.

“ We loved having Cheri's sweet smile and kindness light up our neighborhood and her open and willing ear was always available for listening whenever we saw her and we would stop to chat as we walked in our cove. She will be sorely missed and her passing is a loss for all. Thank you for being a part of this world Cheri.
