“ Uncle Buddy and Aunt Mary Belle were a big part of my Childhood. I loved them both Dearly. I would spend my whole summers at their house. They both had many laughs and tales to tell about this "city" girl, as they called me lol. He was one of the greatest Men I have ever know. The way he lived his life should be a model for all Boys growing up. He was a true Man. Hard working, honest, Great Husband and father, God loving wonderful Man. He will missed by so many. Hugs and prayers to Ellis, Vivian and Sharon and all the Grands. I am sure he is truly happy in his new life now and with the Love of his life. RIH Sweet Uncle Buddy.

“ 4 yrs. ago I notice a gentleman with a grocery list in his hand. That list lead to a friendship that I will forever cherish. Every Thursday morning was “our time”. For 20 minutes or so we would walk, talk and shop off his list. Our visits was so nice. When I left the store our visits was few but we still had them. My last visit was 2 days before Christmas, we sat together and talked of mostly things we had already talked about, his my family and of course his garden. As I got up to leave the hug we shared was a hug I won't forget, gentle yet firm...I will miss my friend! Till we meet again, God bless.

Thank you for your sweet words and for being so sweet to my Daddy and for asking about him every time I saw you after I started getting his groceries for him. Daddy told me just the other day that you had come to visit him. He cherished all the visits from all his friends.
