“ I met Curtis because of his love for the optical business and a love and passion for helping others, he was my sister's (Lil Deb) mentor and second Daddy. In later years I was given the opportunity to work side by side with Curtis. We spent many hours talking about life and people. He was a showman for sure and served others all his life. I'll miss his handsome face and his ability to make you laugh. Here's to a life well lived . Love you Curtis
