“ Danny and I were high school buddies and graduated together the class of 65 at FHS. last year I saw Danny a couple of times at a friends get together and at the all 60's class reunion. It was nice talking to him about old times. Danny was always a great guy. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ So sorry to hear about Danny, I was his Den Mother in Cub Scouting and our small group spent a lot of Sat. afternoons together. He was a joy to be with and my son Chet Crum stayed friends with Danny over the years. We both send our sympathy to Connie and family for your loss. Just know to the children and grandchildren, it was good to have known Danny!
