When I first met Diane in the 80"s she had two Siamese cats. They were in the house. I knew her and Kenneth did not have kids together. Finally, I said Diane I must be going crazy but I hear someone saying momma. We went inside and I be darn if her cats sounded just like that. Dianne, was a very sweet lady who was highly intelligent but down to earth as well!! My prayers to Kenneth and the rest of the family! God Bless “ Daily we meet people of all types, ethnicity morals and pedigree. Some we meet in passing and they are gone forever. Others however remain loyal faithful and we become friends for life. Sometimes we don't know who will be the friend for life who will just pass into oblivion. Please bear with me as I reflect ..

It will be somewhat more difficult when I pass on my way to church, for me not to look over to the left or right and rehearse a memory as I search.

It will be a lot more different now that she has passed and gone, As she makes her journey from here to there, a brighter day has dawned.

The times We have been privileged to share with her, sharing her huge and loving heart,

The memories of times and events we shared will ever be of us a part.

Every time I see a stray animal, hungry perhaps neglected, it will jog a precious memory again of her as I suspected.

I guess if she had her way she would have asked to live at least til November,

So she could have voted Mr Trump back in, she loved him, don't you remember?

The piles of mail she always had on her desk and lately on her bed, Will be marked return to sender like one of her favorite singers songs once said!

But the memories shared and the times we spent to lengthy to discuss, will live on forever in her kin and friend, always a part of us!

So hold onto your memories that is all we now can do,

And remember as much as we loved her she cared as much for you!

Written in memory of our dear friend, Mrs. Diane Pulse

“ Dianne and my mom were best friends for over 50 years. Dianne was a wonderful, kind, caring, generous person who loved and helped so many people. Dianne and my mom had a beautiful relationship and considered one another sisters. Although Dianne has passed from this earth, she will not be soon forgotten. We love you, Dianne and we thank you for all the love and goodness you brought into our lives! Fly high, beautiful spirit! You made a difference in the world. Denise Gunn
