

Donald "Don" Wayne Moody

September 15, 1954 - May 23, 2024

Donald "Don" Wayne Moody, 69, departed this earthly life on Thursday May 23, 2024, at Ashland Health and Rehab.

Don was born on September 15, 1954, to Morris and Mary Frances (Childers) Moody. He was a proud resident of Hickory Flat and the Abel Store community and attended Gray Academy. Don went on to work locally at several manufacturing facilities including Wurlitzer, Maury Manufacturing, Quartet, and TCI. He was an avid lover of barbecuing and co-owned Fat Boys Restaurant.

He was a member of Beech Hill Church of Christ. In his spare time, he loved fishing, hunting, watching Ole Miss sports, westerns, gardening, and listening to gospel music.

Don will be lovingly remembered by family including two sisters Betty King (Barney) and Jamie Moody both of Hickory Flat; one niece, Jennifer Almon (Bill) of Tupelo and three nephews Bob King (Michelle) of Aiken, South Carolina; Ryan Simpson (Teena) of Ripley; Stuart Simpson (Moni) of Oxford; 6 great nieces and 5 great nephews; along with dear friend Nancy Haynes Mauney and a host of other long time friends.

Don is preceded in death by his parents Morris and Mary Frances (Childers) Moody, sister Frances Simpson, brother James Moody and nephew Ben King (Karen).

Visitation will be held on Saturday, June 1 at 12:00 pm at Beech Hill Church of Christ, 6077 Hwy 4W Ripley. A memorial service will follow at 2:00 pm.

To Betty & Jamie: So sorry you lost your brother, ya'll are in my thoughts and my prayers. I loved Don so much and it wasn't very long ago that he sat on the couch in our home place where talked for a long time. It was a great time! I have always loved every one in the Moody family.
