Dorothy was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend. She was the cornerstone of her family, a wise and steady presence, and a source of deep love and support. Her strength, kindness, and quiet perseverance left a lasting mark on all who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters, Pam Short (Steve) and Debbie Rooker (the late Tommy Rooker); four grandchildren, Amy Parker (Andy), Adam Short (Brittney), Jessie Rooker, and April Gerakos-Rooker (Stephanie); and four great-grandchildren, Julianne Parker, Bowman, Taggart, and Grinnell Gerakos-Rooker. She is also survived by her sister, Darlene Hartley, her brother, Billy Strickland, and a host of nieces and nephews who held a special place in her heart.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Jessie Orman; her parents, Lillie Hopkins Strickland and J.H. Strickland; her son-in-law, Tommy Rooker; brothers Hillard, Montroy, Kyle, Clyce, and David Strickland; and her sister, Melba Orman.

Visitation will be from 12-2 pm at McBride Funeral Home in Ripley, MS, with a celebration of life at 2 pm, where family and friends will gather to honor her legacy and the many ways she touched their lives. In lieu of flowers, the family invites you to honor Dorothy's memory by planting something beautiful or sharing a meal with loved ones, just as she would have done.

Though she has gone to her eternal home, the seeds of her love and faith continue to bloom in the lives of those she leaves behind. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
