

Dorothy M. "Dot" Watson

January 19, 1933 - February 11, 2023

Dorothy Miskelley Watson, 90, died February 11, 2023, at Hospice Ministries in Ridgeland, Mississippi after a brief illness. She had remained in her Madison home for the last ten years. A long-time resident of Tippah County, Dot was born at home on January 19, 1933, to Charlie and Dora Bryant Miskelley, and grew up on their dairy farm outside of Ripley, Miss. She graduated from Ripley public schools and completed her education at Blue Mountain College. She then taught high school English and married William L. Watson in 1956. After becoming a mother, she was a Girl Scout leader, and volunteered extensively in children's education at Ripley 1st United Methodist Church, where she was active in the UMW. Since 2013, Dot has attended Madison Methodist Church, and was in a Sunday School class and a Circle member. She enjoyed chatting with friends old and new, visits from family, reading several daily devotionals, keeping up on Facebook, and flowers from her yard. She also loved front porch visits with neighbors, especially the children. She was an avid listener, great friend, and beloved mother.

Her husband and sister Charlene Morton preceded her in death.

Her memory is a blessing to daughters Jan Watson (Dan Doty) of Madison, Lynn Watson Freeman (Jim) of Atlanta, son Will Watson (Sue) of Madison, grandchildren Jake Freeman (Emily) of Atlanta, Aleah Freeman of Atlanta, and Seth Watson and Noah Watson, both of Madison.

Pallbearers will be: Tommy Morton, Eddie Morton, Joe Morton, Jake Freeman, Noah Watson, Seth Watson, Dan Doty, Jim Freeman.

“ A patient, kind, beautiful, nurturing spirit who is beloved by many. She was a 2nd mother to me as her lovely daughters and I remain the best of friends to this day. I will certainly miss her, but her lovely smile and generous heart will stay with me the rest of my life. I celebrate the beautiful light that she has left all of those she touched.
