“ Mr. Bud was a fine man and I have many fond memories. I can honestly say that he was on of the hardest workers I have known. He took pride in what he did. He always kept his farm and his barn and everything else so nice and neat. He always had the best garden around. He gave me work and paid me well at a time when I needed and shall never forget his kindness. He was what Christ described when he talked a a good neighbor. My prayers are with the family.
