“ Not part of Ms Liz's family but she sure made you feel like you were. Never just a simple "hi" but a whole conversation! Blessed to have known such a genuinely sweet woman. Prayers for peace and comfort to each of you.

“ Liz was our second mother too use after my mom and her friend passed away. When we would stop at the store she would come out side hugging or kissing on the jaw and she would say I love ya'll and God loves you too afterward she would walk back in the store smiling. When i had my first child she said name her after me Elizabeth and i did.. I could go on and on but i want.. Praying for the family give them strength and comfort today and days ahead..Love you.

“ If you ever met Liz you would know she could make you smile just knowing her. She made this world a better place and now Heaven has gained a beautiful new angel. So sorry for your loss and are praying for all of her family. Debbie, Kay, and Robert we all loved your momma and the memories she left for you and all of us who knew her. We all know she is at full speed meeting and loving Jesus and all His angels.
