“ I'm 44 years old and I've been eating your Mother's special burgers since I was three. I can still remember her letting me wipe the tables down when I was about five or six. Gosh, I thought I was really something. ALL GROWN UP.

Time goes by so fast... I'm so thankful to have known Miss. Crum. There are so many memories I could share.... Memories keep us together. Forever.

“ It is hard to comprehend Ripley without my Aunt Ermie. She was a larger than life presence. Even when she complained about something there was a charisma to her that was disarming. I spent alot of time when I was a child with her when I would come to Mississippi on summer vacation and I will always remember things like the sandwich shop where I would pop tops of the bottles and get customers their chips and Oh how many burgers I would eat, I will remember her little dog and the birds that would be so noisy at breakfast, the gun she always kept in her purse, riding to Corinth to pick up supplies for the sandwich shop, I'll remember her and Sammy arguing one minute and then laughing the next, I'll remember her pride over Ronnie and his family, and I'll remember her love for collecting figurines. But most of all I'll remember the big hug she would give me every time I arrived in the summer. I imagine she's cooking hamburgers for the angels now.

“ Ronny and Sammy
Ripley will never be the same without the "Crum" burgers, and Virginia Crum. I know how hard it is on you; But try to remember that she is with Jesus now. Her feet, nor anywhere else, are hurting her now.
She worked many long, hard hours. Now she is resting.

“ Some of my earliest memories is going to visit MawMaw and we would always go see Aunt Ermie and get one of her famous hamburgers, a little coke and a bag of chips. That was part of growing up for all the nieces and nephews. She was an awesome cook and made the best chocolate pies around. Aunt Ermie was something else, you never knew what she would say and always kept you laughing. She had a comment or remark about everything. I will miss her and I know she will be missed by all who knew her.

Ronnie and Sammy I can not even begin to tell you sorry I am for your loss and how it grieves me that you are having to go thru this trying time. But know that there is one Greater than us that will get you thru this and the days to follow. God said that he would never leave us or forsake us. I love you both and will be praying for you and the rest of the family.

“ Ronnie.. May you and your family and loved ones be strengthened at this SPECIAL time as Ermie goes to Heaven to walk the streets of GOLD. That is a VICTORY she earned and deserves. Now she can prepare a place for us to come and visit her. You will see her again RONNIE.. When you get to heaven...
