

Ermie Dees Yancey (Davis)

January 27, 1924 - February 17, 2015

Blue Mountain, Mississippi--- Mrs. Ermie Dees Davis Yancey 91, passed away on February 17, 2015 at the Magnolia Regional Health Center in Corinth, Mississippi. She was born on January 27, 1924 to Lunsford and Vertie Kent Davis in Dumas, MS. She was a homemaker and a member of Blue Mountain United Methodist Church and Deentown Baptist Church. Mrs. Yancey was a prolific artist and was known for her beautiful art work. She loved poetry and music. She was an expert seamstress who also enjoyed crocheting and handwork. She was a former resident at Magnolia Place Personal Care in New Albany, MS.

Ermie is survived by: One daughter: Sue Dye (Dan) of Corinth, MS: One son: Mike Yancey (Patty) of Blue Mountain, MS: Three grandchildren: Tara Maftei, Matthew McLellan, Michael Herman all of Blue Mountain, MS: Two great-grandchildren: Two sisters-in-law: Doris Jumper and Dorothy Wildmon of both of Ripley, MS: One brother-in-law: Joe Nabors of Ripley, MS: A host of nieces and nephews and friends:

She was preceded in death by: Her husband: Malcolm Roy Yancey: Her Parents: One sister; Essie Vee Reed: Four brothers: Troy, Roy, Preston and Lavaughn Davis:

Pallbearers will be: Her Nephews:

To send flowers to the family of Ermie Yancey (Davis), please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

“ Ermie Dees Yancey (Davis)

---

October 05, 2023 at 12:14 PM

“ Our sympathy goes out to your family. She was one of Lorene's best friends. She was a loving mom and a Godly lady. May she rest in peace.

---

Jerry & Judy Crawford & Lorene Crawford - February 18, 2015 at 12:00 AM