“ I will miss my friend . But I take comfort in knowing she is free of pain and is with her beloved Donald .

“ My deepest sympathies to the Tatum family and friends. The Bible offers hope not only for the family but for those we've lost in death as well. At John 5:28,29, Jesus spoke of a resurrection for those now sleeping in death. This is definitely reason to rejoice. This gives you the opportunity to be reunited with Esther once again.

“ It has been my pleasure and privilege to help care for Marie for many years. She was always a tough cookie and loved her family and "Tatum" as she called Donald, her husband, with a love that was fierce and so real!! There was never any put on or make believe in this woman....She had a hard life and has gone to her reward...I surely will miss seeing her cute little grin and her take on life in general when she was in for a visit. She had a lot of suffering in her time. I will just say that I grew to love her very much, Dwalia South, MD.
