

Etta Jane King

May 16, 1931 - April 18, 2024

Etta Jane King, passed away April 18, 2024 at Mississippi Care Center in Corinth, MS, just a few weeks shy of her 93rd birthday. She was born May 16, 1931, to G.C. and Irby Mathis in Tippah County, MS. She was a homemaker, but cherished the time that she worked outside the home as a waitress at the Ramada Inn and as a seamstress at Garen's factory, both in Corinth. She was a lifelong member of Campground Methodist Church.

Jane will be remembered by her bright smile and personality. She was an accomplished seamstress and quilter, and, although she had no children, she gave all of her love to her nieces and nephews.

Jane is survived by her sister, Joan Mathis, of Corinth, nephews Rick Jarman, Mark Lowery, Jody Burns and nieces Kathie Jarmon Kerr of Kansas City, Missouri, Cheryl Mathis of Memphis, Jamie Tribble of Gallatin, TN. and Melinda Mathis Crum of Walnut. She also leaves a very special friend, Terry Martin, of Iuka, and grandnephews Adam Kerr, Sam Jarman, Phillip and Michael Tribble and Connor Burns.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Hershel King, brother Grady Mathis and sister, Emma Jarman.

The family would like to thank Mississippi Care Center's dedicated staff and Gentiva Hospice of Booneville for their caregiving.
