“ Angela I am so sorry to hear about your mom! She has been sick for a long time now. I know from experience you never get ready to give them up but we know in our heart they are much much better off!! I remember moma telling me, "I don't want to leave my children but I am sooo tired!" I miss her all the time but I know she is happy and walking on streets of gold! Now Glenda is doing the same! So smile and always remember THE GOOD MEMORIES!!!

“ Angela,
I am so sorry to hear about your mom. Girl I can say that I know how you feel. But I know that HIS grace is sufficient for every trial that we face. Losing Mothers is one of the hardest things that we as humans have to face. But if we are ready and have CHRIST in our hearts, there is an eterniit waiting where there will be no more parting, no pain and no sickness. Babe if there is anything I can do for you, you know where I am!!!!
Love you

“ Mrs.Faye...we sure will miss you around...I know your family will... We know your in no more pain and have a perfect body now...your not aching and hurting anymore
Such a sweet lady you were to my hubby and I after we first got to JWC and you treated us to a meal at Cracker Barrel with your son David and his family.
We will take care of him and Brittany and those precious babies...and they will grow up knowing how much you loved them....

“ Faye, you were such a wonderful person. It's hard to know you are no longer here on earth to enjoy your family but we all know you are in a much better place. Although you will be missed every single day, your memory will live on with your children, grandchildren and friends. The memories you have left behind will last a life time until we can all see you again someday. I can't thank you enough for the love you showed to me while I knew you. I am thankful for the knowledge that God has a plan for us, even though we may not understand it all the time. I love you, rest well until we meet again. -- Heidi
