“ It's been 10 years since mawmaw's been gone and it's only been a year since you've gone to be with her, pawpaw, and not a day goes by that I don't think of y'all... Not a single day can escape from me wishing y'all were still here...I never fully realized how much y'all had actually taught me until recently-a whole lot of things that I still use in my everyday life-and everyday, I'm still surprising myself on how much I actually learned from y'all.!!! You two-besides Jesse, David, and Alex were all I had growing up.... Ever since September 24, 2001, when y'all became David, Alex's and mine mawmaw and pawpaw, you two also became my everything!!!! Y'all were literally my best friends!!!! Oh, God only knows that not one single day goes by that I don't wish y'all were still here!!! I love and miss y'all oh so so so so much, and although I'm almost 27, I still very much need y'all,...I wish I could go back in time and relive those memories I have of y'all...I wish y'all were still here.

“ Mr Mauney was a good man. He was a pleasure to be around. We here at Morrison's Texaco will miss his weekly visits to get gas & diesel and have his nutty bar / man dew. He would sit and talk 15/30 each visit. Prayers for the family

“ My favorite thing Mr. Mauney would say to me is, "Why do today what you can do tomorrow." He was a welcoming and wonderful man.
