

Helen Pauline "Dixie" Brown (Cox)

April 27, 1974 - December 12, 2010

Blue Mountain, Mississippi---Mrs. Helen Pauline "Dixie" Cox Brown 36, passed away December 12, 2010 at her home in Blue Mountain, MS: She was born to John Cox and Rose Anthony Howard Corbin on April 27, 1974 in Long Beach, CA: She was a Homemaker and a member of the Pentecostal Church: Her survivors include: Her husband:James Henry Brown, Sr. of Blue Mountain, MS: Her father: John Cox of Raleigh, NC: One daughter: Pamela Brackett of Blue Mountain, MS: One son: Billy Joe Shaver of New Albany, MS: Four step-sons: Bobby Joe Russell of Ripley, MS: Anthony Russell of Corinth, MS: James H. Brown, Jr. of Ripley, MS: William C. Brown of Blue Mountain, MS: One sister: Annie Cox of New Albany, MS: One brother: John Gilbert of Smithville, MS: 13 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild:

She was preceded in death by: Her Mother: Rose Anthony Howard Corbin:

Pallbearers will be: John Gilbert, Marcus Gilbert, John Gilbert, Jr., James Griffin, Henry Bryant, Hank Barber:

Honorary pallbearers will be: William Brown, Jerry Bryant:

To send flowers to the family of Helen "Dixie" Brown (Cox), please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

“ Helen Pauline "Dixie" Brown (Cox)

---

October 05, 2023 at 12:14 PM

“ We are deeply sorry for your loss. We know Dixie will be deeply missed. We are sorry we couldn't be with you at this sad time. Our hearts are with you.

Uncle Bobby and Aunt Linda

---

Bobby and Linda Brown - December 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I really thought a lot of Dixie. She could sing like anybody...I mean anybody. She had a hard life like myself. Had we been closer in age, we would have been an awesome music team. All she really needed was a musician. From Muscle Shoals to Nashville, she astounded audiences, including me. Patsy Cline would have got in the closet if she had heard DIXIE sing. God bless dixie and her family. Freddy Lynch Sr.

---

Freddy Lynch Sr. - December 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM