“ To Tasha and family:
I wanted to let you know that Shelia and I are praying for your family during this time of sorrow. We each have lost both our parents and know that God's grace is what helps us to get through the loss of a loved one. May His grace and strength be yours as you face the days ahead.
God's richest blessings,

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. The loss of parents is so extremely difficult to bear. Try to remember that she suffers no more even though your suffering is so great. Time and the love of your family and friends along with faith in the Lord will help get you through. Our love and prayers to you and your entire family.

“ Dear Tasha and family,
I am so sorry for your loss and I want you to know I am thinking of you. Please accept my condolences. I can only imagine how difficult this must be for you.

I'm sorry I never had a chance to meet your mother, but I bet she was a lot like Tasha - a wonderful person and a good Christian.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this sad time.

*With love,
