“ I miss you so much Papaw! I miss your warm hugs and unconditional love. I'm so happy that I got see you right before God called you home. I miss seeing you on your tractor digging or building things from nothing with your bare hands and all those long car rides we took going all over the United States. You were the toughest, funniest, protective, most BadAss Grandfather I had I can't wait to see you again and hold your hand. I love you Papaw.
