

James Hughey

July 1, 1937 - March 24, 2023

James Luthor Hughey, 85, of Bon Aqua, Tennessee, passed away peacefully in his home, surrounded by family, on March 24, 2023. James was born in Tippah County, Mississippi, in July of 1937.

He is survived by his son and daughter in law Jasen and Lana Hughey of Nashville, Tennessee, and his grandsons Roman and Corbin. He is also survived by two sisters and their husbands, Ima and Russel Tivnan of Ripley and Grape and Edgar Cain of Port Gibson, Mississippi.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Bertie Mae Hughey, his parents Luthor and Jessie Hughey, his sister Eva Clark, and his brother Victor Hughey.

James was with Kroger bakery for 40 years. He loved spending time with his grandsons, cutting grass, fish fries, playing tricks, laughing, and growing the best Better Boy tomatoes around. He was a loving and quiet man who could always be depended upon for a prank or a tall tale, affable companionship, a yoyo lesson, good stories, and spare change for gumball machines in his pockets for his grandsons. He will be greatly missed by all who loved and knew him.
