“ My thoughts and prayers go out to each and every family member and friend of James. Special Thanks to Mandy who has been Jame's rock in companionship and care, I know Mandy has been a great comfort to Karla and Suzie who are so grateful that their father, James, had Mandy by his side through the last several years of his care. I never met James however I feel I knew him through his 2 daughters in Florida who always spoke highly of him and Mandy. My heart aches for your loss and rejoices for James who is now with our Lord and Savior saving us all a place in heaven when our time has come to join him.
