“ Jimmy was the older brother I never had. He lived across the street from my Grandmother in Ripley. We became close friends around the time I was in the 8th grade. While Jimmy was 3 years older than me, he always treated me as an equal. We hunted, fished and played sports, both on and off the field, together. He had a small but muscular frame. He made all-conference as the Ripley Tigers football team’s fullback. Had he been larger in size, I feel relatively sure his football career would have extended beyond his high school years. Jimmy had a great, sunny disposition and was true sportsman on and off the field. I followed him from high school to Ole Miss where we were both members of Sigma Nu fraternity. We lost contact after I graduated from Ole Miss because our paths in life went in different directions. I will always have fond memories of the great times we spent together.
