

James W. McMillin (Buddy)

June 6, 1929 - November 1, 2015

Ripley, Mississippi---- Mr. James W. "Buddy" McMillin 86, passed away peacefully on November 1, 2015. Born on June 6, 1929, James was preceded in death by his wife of 59 years, Waurine, his parents, Ernest W. McMillin, Sr. and Lily Dawkins McMillin, as well as two brothers, Ernest Wright, Jr. and Eddie Reece.

His memory will be cherished by his children, Margo Black (Mark), Marlea Johnson (David) and Tim McMillin (Donna); sister Margaret Moore (Fred), and grandchildren Zach and Ryan Johnson, Sara Craddock, Jessi Walker, Allison Varble, Daniel and Caleb McMillin and eight great-grandchildren.

After graduating from Mississippi State, Buddy served as an officer in the US Army with Company C, 114th battalion, during the Korean conflict. Buddy served many years as the President of the Bank of Falkner and director of the TEPA board.

Buddy had a quite humble spirit, and loved reading, farming, boating, and woodcarving. He worshipped alongside his wife and family for over 50 years with the Ripley Church of Christ.
