

Jerry Glenn Hogue

August 20, 1954 - January 5, 2026

Jerry Glenn Hogue, age 71, departed this life on January 5, 2026. He was born August 20, 1954, to M.Z. and Ada Sue Dillard Hogue in Union County, MS. He attended Pine Grove School and later went to Blue Mountain School. When at Pine Grove School, he played basketball. Always ready to help someone in need, he had a big heart. He loved pulling pranks and joking. He worked at Masterbuilt, Howell Lumber Co., Hurts Frame Shop, H and H Logging, and drove a dump truck hauling silage for Clemmer-Hill Dairy. Even though he was 10 and 12 years younger than his brothers, he always tried to keep up with them. A nickname of "Baby Tator" stuck with him even as an adult. Some interests were fishing, tinkering in his shop, listening to country music or oldies rock n roll, watching westerns or Andi Griffin, and The Waltons on TV. He liked to watch Ole Miss play football, and the Egg Bowl was really wild at our house. The best thing he loved and enjoyed was being around his grandkids.

Jerry was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Noia Hogue and MJ (Jug) Hogue.

Survivors are his wife of 50 years Linda Huddleston Hogue; one daughter Krystal Floyd (Dewayne) of Ripley, MS; one son, Jeremy Hogue of Ripley, MS; six grandchildren Lynzie Jeanes of Shawnee, OK, Jeret Hogue of Walnut, MS, Emmie and Dixie Hogue of Franklin, TN, John-Emery Floyd of Ripley, MS, and Cable Hogue of Ripley, MS; one neice Nicole Blair of Ripley, MS; and one nephew Allen Hogue of New Albany, MS.

Officiated by: Bro. Dwayne Floyd

Assisting Minister: Bro. Michael Hodgins

Pallbearers: Rick Glissen, Clint Hill, Eddie Mauney, Brian Blair, Chris Sanderson, Chip Freeman
