“ To the Smith Family: I am truly sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Death is something we never get accustomed to. When tragedy and hardship befall my family i often find comfort in the scriptures. Isaiah 25:8 speaks of the time when death will be gone forever. Revelation 21:4 speaks of pain and tears being a thing of the past. Times like these make it difficult to trust in such promises but they will come true for us. Beg God for endurance until that time comes. My prayers are with you.

“ So very sorry to hear about Jerry. I only met him a couple of times, but am writing this for Reggie Richmond, they are cousins. Our prayers are with the family and Reggie can't be there since working days and just can't take off right now. He has been telling memories he has to me and I think he talked to Gerald. Our deepest sympathy. Carolyn and Reggie Richmond
