“ *Dear Sweet Cameron,
It's so hard to think that you are not here. Although we hadn't connected in a while, I was keeping up with you through Mom and all your antiquing adventures. I have no doubt that you have already found your way around heaven and are making it a brighter place with your wit and your ability to make things more beautiful with just the touch of your hands! You were loved and respected by so many. You will be missed terribly by all who knew you. May God bless your family and friends during this difficult time, but find comfort knowing you are now with Jesus.*

“ "While we are mourning the loss of our friend, others are rejoicing to meet him behind the veil." John Taylor

This saying brings comfort in knowing you are at peace and enjoying the company of Jesus and your family and friends who have gone on before you. You brought such joy and laughter to my life like no one else ever could. I will miss you always. My heart is at peace knowing you are free from your worries. Rest in Peace my precious friend! I will see you again soon!

“ I met Cam 15 years ago when we worked at a retail decorating store together. I knew he was really special from the first day. After the store closed (11 yrs later) we formed our business, Stone Manor Antiques. I cant begin to say how much fun we had working that business together and traveling around antiquing looking for finds. Through the years, he had become an integral part of my life in laughter and in sorrow. Every Friday was lunch day, I never could imagine that Fri June 7 would be the last. I dont think I ever met someone with as much talent as he had, I learned something everytime we got together. I am so sorry for your loss, Joyce. I am sorry for the loss I feel and will feel forever. RIP my friend
