DAVID SONS - August 29, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Johnny was a friend that we will miss very much. He was one of the first people we met after moving to the lake. We always enjoyed hearing his stories. Things will never be quiet the same without seeing and hearing Johnny working hard around the lake. Joanna and the rest of his family are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ While looking for a lake home, we stumbled upon Snow Lake and Johnny was the first person we saw. We talked for a while, but during those few minutes he convinced us that we needed to stop looking because the lake was "the most beautiful you'll find and the folks don't come much better." He was right, but it now seems wrong without seeing our friend everyday.

“ My daddy was the sweetest most kindness man you would ever find. He has always been there and i could never have had a better role model. He taught me alot about work and boy did he make me work. I would not change those memories for anything in this world. I will forever miss my daddy and he will always be in my heart. I can hear my daddy saying right now up there in heaven "hey brat time to go to work". Miss you Daddy!!

“ Johnny will be surely and sorely missed by all who knew him. He was a rare gem of a man - diligent, caring and happy. He was one of the first I met at Snow Lake, and always quick to help. I will miss his periodic phone calls declaring "I took care of ya!". May God take care of you, Johnny.

“ Johnny was like family to Dennis and myself. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. I could always depend on him to see after my property for the 7 years I spent in FI. I knew it was in good hands. He was one of the hardest workers I've ever known. our sympathy goes out to the family and God's blessings.

“ To my dear family, my deepest sympathies and prayers are with you. Having Uncle John around while growing up was a great experience. I'll always remember the wild tells he could spin, and how he could give you that side-ways glance and say “boyyyy, tell you what”.
He was a good man, great father, and an incredible uncle. Peace be with him.
