“ I just learned of your loved one's death. I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that your families must be experiencing. However, I have some comforting news to share with you. Did you know that the Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again? In your copy of the Bible at John 5:28, 29 you will find Jesus Christ assurance to us that everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. In addition, Jehovah God has promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:1-5 that very soon pain, sickness, poverty, crime, and yes, even death will be no more. I hope that these few lines have brought you some comfort. For more information, visit jw.org.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I really liked and appreciated Coach Wallace when I was in school. Not being athletically minded, Coach Wallace never picked on me or made me feel less of a person than I already did at the time. To me, that made him a hero. I'm sorry I wasn't able to attend visitation or the funeral, but my thoughts and prayers are with his family. May God grant you strength and peace during this difficult time.

Sincerely,
Phillip Palmer
