“ I can't just pick one memory, there are so many wonderful ones! Living in "Netter's" and Bobby Lyn's household as a teen was amazing. They fed me and clothed me and treated me like one of their own. She sure had her hands full with us 3 girls and we'd push her buttons too, lol. Some of the best advice I've ever received came from her. She was hilarious too! She sure could make me laugh. I could sit for hours and listen to her stories about Western State. She was an amazing woman and I loved her very much. The world will be a little less bright without her here. Angela, I love you and I am praying for you all.
