“ I always remember when Payton was born me and Annette stood by the door listening to her arrival. Every time they opened the door to go in and out we put our foot on the door to keep it from shutting all the way and listened with r ears to the door until she was born . I'll never forget that. Precious time in our lives

“ I am broken hearted for the loss we feel. Annette was my mother’s best friend and a greater friend no one else could have been. I can’t sing her praises enough. What a wonderful person Ann was, and if you had the pleasure of meeting her, even just once, you know how true this statement is. Her and my mother’s friendship began in their middle school age. Ann and Barry have known me and my sisters since birth. We were playmates of Nicole and Brad, with birthday parties and bonfires and movie nights at their home. Ann was wonderfully devoted to her family and friends. She set such an example of how if you had a heart of love, you could spread it out over so many people. If you knew Annette, it was obvious she loved Barry, and there was no doubt her pride and joy were Nicole and Brad. But she didn’t stop there, she and her sisters were so close it was hard to tell the three apart. She never missed a chance to express her love and pride for Casey, Cortney, and Brittney. And she loved us girls just like we were her own. Annette was very involved the years we participated in FFA with Barry as our advisor. Ann helped with all our activities, trips and fund raisers. When we went to State and National Convention, she went with us. She was a chaperone, our transportation and logistics specialist, and mother to all.

Ann was a beautiful person inside and out. In our youth, my sister and I often observed how beautiful she was with perfectly styled blonde hair and gorgeous makeup and big blue eyes. It was the inside that was so beautiful it showed on the surface. She was never short on hugs and kind words. You could hear pure joy when she greeted you with her lovely southern voice. She had an infectious laugh and a kind soul. It was her friendship with my mother over the decades that my sisters and I admired and cherished in her most. It endured and grew where many often fail or drift apart as a consequence of time and change. Not them, they stayed close. There were trips, phone calls, cards, gifts, graduations, weddings, funerals, grandchildren and great-grand. They shared and helped each other through it all.

We grieve with you Barry, Nicole and Brad, Lonette and Patty and all of Ann’s nieces, nephew and grandchildren and friends. We loved Annette so very much and her absence from this world will be greatly felt in our lives. We look forward to the day we will all be reunited with her in Heaven.

Love, Laurie, Belinda and Kimberly

“ Annette was one of those rocks that we cannot see how her family and friends can do without, but God was ready for her. She was one of the kindest, sweetest and most patient people I have known. I had the privilege of working with her for a few years and loved her so much. My heart goes out to Barry, Brad, and Nicole and the rest of the family.

“ Annette was the kindest defender of all - she cherished people and she dearly loved animals. She lived life to the fullest, always working to make life better for others. She was my cousin but she was much more than that, she was a sister to me. I'm heartbroken over her passing and she's going to be missed by her family and so many friends.
