“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, it is at times difficult to receive the comfort we search for. In times like these I know I can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2 Cor 1:3).

“ To my sweet little sister. I'm sorry I couldn't have been with you more as you fought the valiant fight. If I'd known you'd be leaving us soon I would have been with you sooner. I hope you knew that I was there - you seemed to. I'm so sorry you had to go thru that terrible disease - you didn't deserve it. You'll always be my little sis. I love you with all my heart & will miss you everyday. I know that mom, dad, jd, johnny, aunt junie & all the others were there to welcome you home. p.s. thank you for the precious touch you gave me to let me know that you're ok. Diane

“ Kathy, your energy and smile will be missed but the heavens just got a little bit brighter. It's hard to know what to say and even harder not to be there to say goodbye. We love you and know you're held by our creator...until we meet again..all our love.
