

LeOla Carr Bryant

December 12, 1938 - November 8, 2021

LeOla Carr, 82 years, 11 months, 8 days died unexpectedly 11/8/2021 at St. Bernard's Health System in Jonesboro AR. She was born November 12, 1938 the daughter of C.C. Carr and Emma Jane Mask Carr. Lee was a resident of Ripley MS. Where she enjoyed driving her 1963 Chevrolet through the back roads throughout TIPPAH County, she also enjoyed working in her yard, raising her chickens and just walking the hillsides and enjoying the outdoors. One thing we all can say about Aunt Leola is she would help anyone. There was not one selfish bone in her body.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband: Ira;
Her son: Albert Lee Cromeans; Sisters: Sadie Hill, Gracie Mauldin, Rose Carr;
Brothers: Leroy Carr, John Carr, Jimbo Carr;

She is survived by one son: Ira Lee Bryant of Ripley, MS; two granddaughters: Lynlee Bryant, Breanna Bryant; one great-granddaughter: Addieleigh. All of Ripley, MS; brothers: Tommy Cockrell, Cotton (Wanda) Carr, of Ripley, MS; sisters: Linda Clemmer of Tennessee, Julia Carr Greer of Faulkner, MS; many nieces and nephews and friends that loved her dearly.

“ You will be missed we done so much over the yrs and had so much fun. Love you even when my mom had surgery she ask u to take care of me that morning. And she knew you would all the times at the overflow well getting water and just going to the graveyards walking them I remember the green snake while we was walking thought I'd die . All the flowers I planted by your big tree by the house to us hauling wood for jimbo I could go on and on but want I still have you on dvds I can watch u when I miss you I'm glad your not in pain anymore . Please tell everyone up there hello . I love them . I wish I was with u now. RIP Leeola 💕💕

“ Aunt Lee ,I love you! As a child growing up, we were so close but distance and time prevented us for being as close as we once were As far as family goes, I pray that the bridges between you and your daughter, Jeanie were mended before this day. Rest in peace Aunt Lee I will see you again one day soon.
