

Linda Gray Pinkston

June 3, 1942 - January 12, 2024

On Friday, January 12, 2024, Linda Gray Pinkston, at the age of 81, was carried gently into Jesus' arms, her last and heavenly home. Linda was born on June 3, 1942, in Corinth, MS to Bill and Blanche Gray. In 1960, she graduated as the Salutatorian of Tishomingo High School. She married Maurice Pinkston on September 1, 1962, and faithfully served as a minister's wife for over 50 years. The couple was married for 55 years and were blessed with two daughters: Michelle and Lynita. Linda was a dedicated Christian who loved the Lord with all of her heart.

In addition to her parents, Linda was preceded in death by her husband, Maurice Pinkston, as well as her brother Scotty Gray and sister Rosemary Gray.

Linda is survived by her two daughters: Michelle Pinkston Hall (Matthew) and Lynita Pinkston Davis (Shawn); her grandchildren: Andrew Wiesing (Felicia), Zachary Wiesing (Lauren), Abigail Wiesing and Hannah Davis; her great-grandchildren: Lexi McCord, Brentlee Maurice Wiesing, Charlie Killian Wiesing and Zadie Ann Michelle Wiesing; one sister, Jeanette Gray Storment of Memphis, TN; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Her grandsons and great-grandsons will serve as honorary pallbearers.

Bro. Shawn Davis and Bro. Larry Hill will be officiating.
