

Mary Grace Herrington McMillin

February 17, 1931 - November 15, 2025

Mary Grace Herrington McMillin peacefully entered heaven on November 15, 2025, at St. Catherine's Village in Madison, Mississippi. Grace was born February 17, 1931, in Heidelberg, Mississippi, to Tom Brame Herrington and Alzah Elizabeth Grace Herrington. Grace soon moved with her family to Monroe County, Mississippi, where she graduated from Aberdeen High School in 1949. She spent the next four years at Mississippi State College for Women, earning a Bachelor of Science in Home Economics in 1953. Grace continued her education, earning a Master of Arts in Home Economics from the University of Mississippi in 1972.

Upon graduation from MSCW, she accepted a position with the Mississippi Extension Service in Fulton, Mississippi, and then moved to Ripley, Mississippi, becoming the Home Demonstration Agent for Tippah County. It was there she met and married Troy Neal McMillin. After their two children enrolled in school, she began a twenty-six-year career in the high school classroom. She spent many happy years instructing her beloved students in the art and science of home economics at Pine Grove High School, Falkner High School, and finally at Ripley High School, where she retired in 1992.

Her constant and abiding faith in Jesus led her to serve as a Bible teacher at First Baptist Church of Ripley as well as being an active member of the Women's Missionary Union. Through the years, she spent countless hours supporting missions through the many opportunities WMU provided. A lifelong student of the Bible, she encouraged many others through her teaching by challenging them to answer God's call on their life, whatever that may have been. She also enjoyed reading, sewing for her family and others, traveling, listening to Ole Miss sports by radio, and serving as librarian at St. Catherines Village.

Grace was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

Grace loved her family and is survived by her two children, Mary Elizabeth McMillin Sharman and husband, Dr. William Robert Sharman III of Oxford, Mississippi, and Thomas Neal McMillin, Sr., and his wife, Ruth Hurt McMillin, of Madison, Mississippi; six grandchildren, Dr. William Bradford Sharman and wife, Dr. Rosalia Romero, of Claremont, California; Robert Thomas Sharman of Oxford, Mississippi; Mary Katherine Sharman Garcia and husband, Robert Garcia III, of Marietta, Georgia; Thomas Neal McMillin, Jr., and wife, Keely Childress McMillin of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Ruth Allison McMillin Griffin and husband, Dr. Kerry Scott Griffin of Carrollton, Georgia; and Preston Hurt McMillin of Nashville, Tennessee; and five great-grandchildren, Charlene Grace McMillin, Isla Rose McMillin, Cecilia Rose Sharman, Adeline Elizabeth Garcia, and Daphne Ruth Griffin. She is also survived by her sister, Margaret Herrington Barber; sister-in-law, Lonnie McMillin Hurley, nephews, Jimmy McMillin and Mark Barber, and nieces, Gale McMillin Humphries, Linda Barber Baldock, and Linda McMillin Cameron. She also leaves behind her special friend and neighbor, Joann Munn, along with her special nieces, Staci Munn Lewis and Shelley Munn Akins.

“ Mary Grace was our oldest Cousin in the Grace family. Unfortunately I haven't been able to spend very much time with her and her family over the years. I Remember her smile and her beautiful southern accent when we would see her on our family vacations to Mississippi. What a wonderful life she has lived! My thoughts and prayers go to you, Marybeth and Tommy, I'm sure you will miss her very much as well as the whole family will. I'm sure she was a great blessing to many! Shirley Goodwine Sullivant.

“ Mrs. Mc taught me many skills that I have used throughout my lifetime. I would like to share a few of my favorite ones with her family and friends. First, purple is not my color, really not my color, Mrs. Mc had me use the same pattern to make a different color dress in less than a week, to wear for a presentation! I still think of her every time I see a red head wearing purple. She told me this strictly out of love. Secondly, you need well placed receptacles in every room. When we were renovating our forever older home, placement of the receptacles was nothing I needed help deciding, Mrs. Mc had taught me that years ago. The carpenters were shocked that I had learned that in a Home Economics class! I could go on and on, but I'll stop with this last one. Mrs. Edwards had tried to teach me to knit, but I just couldn't catch on to the knitting stitches. Mrs. Mc stepped right up, taught me to read a crochet pattern and to crochet. Under Mrs. Mc supervision, I crocheted my mother a white "Sunday" cape. It is hanging protected in my closet! During my four years of taking Home Economics, Mrs. Mc was like a second mother to me. I've always admired and appreciated her.

I have a few of her Bible Book Study Commentaries from 1986-1994. I cherish the ones that have her neat signature on the outside cover.

“ *Mrs. Mc as we called her in school was one of my favorite teachers... she would help a student any way she could. She had a free period, for herself, but she used it to teach some of us to read crochet directions. So thanks to Mrs. Mc, I can crochet just about anything! Loved her dearly.

“Mrs. Mac” was a beautiful lady and she tried her best to teach us how to be ladies. She was my Home Ec teacher at Falkner. I loved her. She was kind but firm. I treasure the memories of time spent with her at FHS. Praying for her family during this time. God bless, Betty Bennett Cook, class of 1974
